

Tony Horne

www.tonyhornebooks.com

07769 644883

Ghostwriter To The Stars

Publications

- “The Daddy Books” Late 2019 (Franchise of books telling the side of the alienated father, post-divorce)
- “Kenny Thomas – The Autobiography” Coming in 2019 (Kenny Thomas, UK Soul Singer in the 90’s)
- “Everyone gets Fifteen Quid” 2019 (Shayne Burgess)
- “Save One Child” November 2018 (Ian James MBE)
- “Wildcard” November 2018 (Christopher Maloney)
- “If Only” November 2018 (Terry West)
- “The Man and The Mask” July 2015 (Paul Dadge)
- “The Red Lioness: One Woman. Four Years. 90,000 miles. 650 Plus Pubs” Nov 2015 (Cathy Price)
- “Getting over the X” November 2014 (Steve Brookstein)
- “Rio” May 2014 (Fiction with Craig Summers)
- “Bodyguard: My Life on the Front Line” May 2012 (Craig Summers)
- “Tango 190” (Second Edition), April 2012 (PC David Rathband)
- “Tango 190” (First Edition), June 2011 (PC David Rathband)
- "The Chronicle Chronicles," January 2011
- “Hornes Down Under: Part Two” October 2011
- “Hornes Down Under: Part One” October 2009

Work History

- Columnist for The Evening Chronicle in the North East of England (2004 - 2011)
- Freelance contributor to The Observer and Mail on Sunday (1993 - 2004)

Honors

- Ghostwriter for the late PC David Rathband
- Writer of Biteback Publishing's 2nd best-ever selling book (Tango 190)
- Wrote the book the BBC tried to ban (Bodyguard: My Life on the Front Line)
- Reached Number 14 on Amazon Kindle with Getting Over the X - the story of the first X Factor winner, Steve Brookstein
- Number 1 terrorism book on the 10th anniversary of 7/7 attacks (The Man and The Mask)
- Key Note Speaker at Ghostwriters Unite in Long Beach, California, 2013

Education

- Tiffin School for Boys, Kingston Upon Thames, Surrey (1982 – 1988)
- Exeter University (Also year abroad spent at Rome and Padua University) (1988 – 1993)